

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN HATE, PLEASE COME TO FIRST BARD CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF HATE STUDENT MEETING, WEDNESDAY FEBRUARY 13, 5:00 PM, CAMPUS CENTER – GEORGE BALL ROOM

To Bard Students –

Hate. It is one of the least understood part of the human condition, and the focus of the new Bard Center for the Study of Hate.

One of BCSH's top priorities is to support student research and activities that promote a better understanding of hate. BCSH offers senior project research support, and a summer internship program, sending Bard students to NGOs focused on hate. We'll discuss these programs, and others, at the meeting, but I'm eager to hear from you about how else BCSH might be helpful to your academic and extra-curricular interests and work.

Please join me (there will be some snacks too) at 5:00 pm on Wednesday February 13 in the George Ball room at the Campus Center. If you have any questions, feel free to email me at kstern@bard.edu or call me at 718-503-4441.

Kenneth S. Stern
Director
Bard Center for the Study of Hate
kstern@bard.edu
bcsh.bard.edu
718-503-4441